Thank you to all who supported the Church with Time, Talent and Treasure.

Knights of Columbus Crab Feed is Sat. Jan. 30th. Tickets are on sale after all the Masses this weekend.

Some thoughts from the Spirituality of Anthony De Mello – Just remember, yesterday is history, tomorrow is Mystery, and today is a present, A Gift from God.

Life is 10 percent things that happen to you and 90 percent how you react to the 10 percent.

A neurotic is someone who worries about things in the past that never happened. Not unlike us normal people who only worry about things in the future that won't happen.

What lies beyond us and what lies before us are tiny matters when compared to what lies within us.

Reminders:

Two cars were broken into during Mass last weekend. In both cases purses were left visible in the vehicles.

Your help is needed to keep pews presentable and tidy for people attending the next Mass. Please put Missalettes and song books back in the pew pockets and either take the Bulletin home or return it to its place at the church entrances. Do not put chewing gum on the ground outside of the church or on the carpet or pews.

Our Church Insurance carrier asked that we continue to remind you that the maximum speed in the parking lot at all times is 10 mph for every ones safety.

Catholics Are Coming Home!

During the Christmas season as we strengthen our relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ, we remember our call to share our faith with one another. We remember the words of St. Peter who tells us "to always be ready to give witness to the reason for our hope" (1 Peter 3:15). Sharing our love for Jesus Christ and spreading the good News is a necessary part of our life in Christ. Now through Jan 31, the Diocese of Sacramento will be part of a Catholics Come Home commercial campaign and power video ads will air on most all Sacramento and Chico/Redding TV channels. We encourage each of you to invite those who may not be practicing their faith (or who may have never encountered Christ) to join us for the Holy Season of Christmas. For those who are returning home, our parish will be offering Hospitality Sessions. We lovingly invite all those who have fallen away to come home to find healing, answers and support. There is always a place for you here. We also invite those who are not Catholic and who wish to inquire into the Catholic Faith to contact:

Claudia Biegel 635-8399 Deacon Walter Little 638-1176
Julia Boen 363-4610 x100 Trixie Poeschl 362-3827
