Question of the Week

Question for Children: How do you experience Jesus helping and loving you?

Question for Youth: Jesus revealed himself to an outcast of society. How can you be "living water" to the outcasts of your school? Society? The world?

Question for Adults: When you are tempted to try to satisfy your "thirst for meaning" through some other means, what keeps you coming back to the living water of intimacy with Christ? Through what means do you experience Christ's power in your life: sacraments? scripture? prayer? others?

Thank You

Terri and I would like to thank everyone for the prayers and support we received while undergoing open-heart surgery last month. The doctors are pleased with my progress (and so are we). It is a wonderful feeling knowing so many people care that much. Again, thank you all.

Bob & Terri McGarvey

Church Damage Update

Thank God no one was in the church on Saturday night at 10:45pm and that the driver was not injured or worse. We continue to keep him in our prayers. Now we begin the process of restoring our Church as it was. Gallagher Bassett Insurance Co. are assessing the damage and Jackson Construction Co., who did the extension at the Coloma Road side of the church in 1999, are beginning the repair and restoration work.

This has been a traumatic and challenging week. But thank God I have had wonderful support from Fr. Jonathan, Deacon Walter Little, Linda Condon, the Knights of Columbus and All who helped with the cleanup on Monday.

We appreciate Bishop Weigand's visit as well as the visits and phone calls from many of my brother priests and many, many parishioners.

With St. John Vianney guiding us, the good Lord will see us through and renew our faith, hope and healing.

Fr. Moroney

RCIA—First Scrutiny

For the next three weeks, our catechumens and candidates for continuing conversion are entering the period of scrutiny. The scrutinies are intended to purify their hearts and minds; to strengthen them against temptation; to help them become more closely united with Christ; and to help them progress in their love of God. Let's join them with our own prayers to wish them a successful journey.
