REFLECTION - Death of the Good Shepherd

Jesus said: 'I am the good shepherd;
the good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep.'
Jesus did not have to suffer and die.

He had a choice.

He chose to suffer and die because he cared
About the flock God had entrusted to him.

What Jesus wants from us is not our suffering,
But a life of love and service.

Such a life will inevitable bring suffering.
But Jesus supports all those who follow him down the road of faithful love and generous service.

Question of the Week

Question for Children: Name one thing that you will do each day this week to remind you that Jesus died and rose to new life for you.

Question for Youth: We hear the story of Jesus' death each year. What did you hear differently this year? How has your faith changed in the past year?

Question for Adults: Identify and share one way that you personally "die in Christ."
