The Easter Vigil - A Special Night

For the last eight months an excellent group of people has been on a special journey of faith. They have studied scripture, the doctrines and practices of our faith and have followed the path of Jesus.

This Easter Vigil they are taking one more step to be in full communion with the church by receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. This is not the end of their faith journey. The journey for them, just as it does for us, goes on forever.
 Please pray for them as they continue.

Did you know that SJV School offers a Transitional Kindergarten (TK) program? Do you have a child who turns 5 this year from June through Dec. and you are not quite sure if he or she is ready for the social, emotional and academic expectations of a kindergarten program? The goal of TK is to provide a fun, positive, small-group setting that fosters a love of learning and prepares your child for Kindergarten through a combination of developmental, hands-on, multi-sensory, academic and social experiences in a faith-filled environment. Typically, the TK class includes a mix of summer, fall and winter birthdays. The TK school day is 8am to 11:45am daily. An after school program is available as well. SJV School is currently accepting applications for the 2009-10 school year for the TK class. Please call the school office 363-4610. Applications are processed on "first come, first served" basis until all the spaces are filled. visit www.sjvschool.org, our school website for more information
