Question of the Week

Question for Children: Share about small ways in which you help others around you.

Question for Youth: In this week's Gospel we hear about the disciples being sent out by Jesus to serve others. What have you done in the last year to serve others? How can you be more compassionate to those who are in need?

Question for Adults: Talk about the small ways in which you are sent to heal, teach, and "give the gift" of faith which you have received.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

If you could somehow transport a third-century Christian into your twenty-first-century Sunday Mass, once the initial shock wore off he or she would be more or less at home with the structure of the first part of the liturgy, the Word. The second part might be more difficult to comprehend. The stumbling block would be the book. We have a book, a missal or sacramentary, that is set down on the altar with a very precisely prescribed set of words for the priest to say and the people to sing at the Eucharistic Prayer. In the early days of the church, there were no set "formulas" for this prayer. The ancients would have raised eyebrows at our "bookishness" since they preferred to let the prayers roll forth from a gifted leader of prayer. There was a basic shape to the prayer of thanksgiving, and almost general agreement that the words of Christ at the Last Supper ought to be included.

By the second century, Justin Martyr wrote that the presider "gives thanks at some length . . . and when he has finished the prayers and the thanksgiving, all the people present give their assent by saying 'Amen.' " In the world before books, people could memorize long passages of prose and poetry, and so it is easy to see how particular phrases or expressions passed from church to church.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Blessing

God our Father,
in your wisdom and love you made all things.
Bless these men,
that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their sons and daughters,
may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

We are looking for employees of Intel Corporation who would like to volunteer in the Intel PC Pals Program at our school. The program matches Intel employees with our fifth graders for individual mentoring by email.

Volunteer efforts are matched by a sizeable donation from Intel to our school. If you know anyone working for Intel who can help, ask them to contact stan.lovric@iontel.com or Susan Chargulaf at 363-4610 ext 113 to get more information about the program.
