Question of the Week

Question for Children: What are the things that keep you from being a friend of Jesus?

Question for Youth: The good and the bad have the same opportunity to rule our life. What are you doing (bad habits, poor choices, etc) that you need to weed out? Who can help you with that?

Question for Adults: How would you describe "the weeds" which have polluted your own faith, or the faith of people whom you know.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

For centuries, the only Eucharistic Prayer we heard as Western Catholics was the old Roman Canon, usually recited in a low voice by the priest, in Latin. By the 1940s, many Catholics were learning to follow along with the actions of the priest by means of a bilingual missal, with Latin on one side and English on the other. Drawings of the priest's position at the altar, moving from one side to the other, or bowing or standing with uplifted hands at the center, helped the readers stay on track.

The Roman Canon is a long prayer, and since it was done every day for every occasion, priests had a way of galloping through it. Even though long, its structure is fairly simple, with the consecration and sacrifice clearly marked out. Sadly, this surviving prayer had triumphed over many treasures of our tradition that emphasized other dimensions of Eucharist. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy in 1963 did not call directly for new Eucharistic Prayers, but that direction was inevitable. Discussion began almost immediately, and by 1967 the Vatican approved three new Eucharistic Prayers. In 1974, the Congregation for Worship unveiled the experiment of two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation, and three for Masses with Children. At last, a period of creativity and enrichment had begun.

Thank You

To all who helped in organizing, advertising and the many weeks of preparation you put into making the Music Ministry Workshop last Saturday with Brother Rufino Zaragoza, OFM such a great success. It was heart-warming to see over 80 people attend, especially our choir leaders, choir members, many parishioners as well as people from neighboring parishes. It was great to see music and choir members from our parish many ethnic communities attend, so we can all work together because we at SJV are One Body, One community in Christ.

My sincere thanks,

Fr. Moroney

Thank you to all who supported our Annual Mission Appeal Second Collection this past weekend which goes to help Jesuit Volunteers International. We are thankful to Chris Symkowick-Rose from the theology Department at Christian Brothers High School who made the excellent presentation at all the Masses. The collection was $4335.00 for the Jesuit Volunteers International.
