WEEKLY MIRACLE

This week marks the beginning of a kind of "liturgical detour." We have been listening to Saint Mark's Gospel during this liturgical year (Year B). Today we begin to hear a long section from John's Gospel, starting with the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. This miracle story is a prelude to the Lord's statements that we will begin hearing in a few weeks, where Jesus refers to himself as the "bread of life." Each week we witness a miracle at Mass. We do not see a multiplication of loaves before us. What our eyes of faith allow us to see is the miracle of the transformation of common elements--bread and wine--into the Lord's body and blood. Once we have received the Lord, the multiplication begins, for in the Eucharist we are strengthened to multiply our efforts to feed the poor, shelter the homeless, and bring comfort to the despairing. TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Yesterday, the greatest pilgrimage in our tradition ended with the feast of Saint James at his shrine in Compostella, Spain. Every year, as many as a hundred thousand persons walk a portion of the medieval way of the pilgrim, earning the right to wear the scallop shell symbol of this journey of faith. In legend, this city on the northern coast of Spain is the final resting place of the apostle, and the full name of the cathedral is "Saint James of the Field of Stars." There is a tradition that Saint James the Great preached there.

In the Roman Catholic tradition, the pilgrimage, like any procession, is a symbol, life's journey distilled, a powerful sign of our journey toward a certain goal. The perils of the road, the support of companions, the contemplative slower pace of life, have the potential to transform and renew the pilgrims in ways that last a lifetime. Along the way, the distinctions between rich and poor fall away, and everyone shares humble rustic food and stops for the night in hostels or under the stars. After a long walk, the experience of entering through the great doors into the vast cathedral filled with incense, light, and song is a foretaste of heaven. The pilgrims often say that their whole lives are redirected toward that moment of entry into the heavenly Jerusalem. The most memorable feature of the cathedral is called the botofumeiro, an incense burner on pulleys and chains that sweeps through the cathedral in immense circles, swirling clouds of sweet-smelling incense around the vast nave.

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

St. John Vianney Parish invites you to meet the Lord and join us in the faith formation process called the RCIA.

This process is for people wishing to become members of the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.

The RCIA is offered to:

- People who are not baptized
- People who are baptized in another Christian religion
- People who are baptized as Catholics and have not received their First Communion (Eucharist) and/or Confirmation.
- Catholics who have not participated in the life of the church for a period of time and desire to return to their family of faith.
- Practicing Catholics who want more knowledge of their faith.

The process includes the study of scripture, Catholic worship, church tradition, doctrines of the faith, the sacraments and the ideals of the Catholic community.

Classes begin on Monday, August 10 @ 7:00pm in the Fireside room of the Parish Hall.

For more information call Joe Thomas 362-3847, Dolores Lyons 635-7751 or Mary Vigil 638-5558.

If you are unable to attend the first meetings, it is not too late. Just call one of us at the phone numbers above.

White Elephant Collections Begin August 2, 2009 9:00am to 12Noon

It's that time of year again to donate your precious antiques for the White Elephant Sale at the Festival. Please bring your saleable and gently used items to the rectory garage.

Question for the Week

Question for Children: How do you share with others what you have?

Question for Youth: Generosity is key to today's Gospel. What do you have that you should be sharing with others? Think of your possessions, your talents, and your time. How can you use these for the good of others?

Question for Adults: In what ways do you generously provide for the needs of others who have little or nothing?
